THE REMAINDER OF THE TOWN BOARD, TO WIT:

WHEREAS, the Military Law of the State of New York, Section 314 provides that a local municipality can act by Local Law to waive interest on unpaid taxes for those individuals called to active military duty, and

WHEREAS, the Town Board has determined that although the Town can act to waive the interest on the Town portion of the County/Town bill this waiver would not affect the interest charge for late payment on the County portion of the bill, and

WHEREAS, the Town Board wants to relieve active duty military personnel from the interest payment charged on late payment of tax bills since there is a financial hardship when these individuals are on military duty, and

WHEREAS, the Town Board further deems it appropriate to memorialize Governor George Pataki to issue an executive order which would reduce the 6% interest factor to no interest on late payment of all property tax bills for those individuals in active military duty;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Town Board of the Town of Lancaster hereby memorializes Governor George Pataki to issue an executive order to reduce the 6% interest factor on unpaid taxes to no interest on all property tax payments received late from active military personnel given the financial hardship they face while on active military duty.
